November 25, 1999

Dear Students, Parents, Alumni and Friends:

Another year, another Thanksgiving, another English-Latin game. The tradition continues. All is well.

A man cleverer than I once wrote that there are two kinds of people, those who finish what they start and so on. I maintain that on this day, at this game, there are two kinds of people, those who want English to win and those who do not. I am proud to be among the former.

Good luck, English. Block crisply, tackle hard, play well, and whatever the outcome, this will be a day to remember.

- Gerald L. Sullivan

LATIN FIGHT SONG

On the Field of Many Colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on,
  cheer like volley thunder
Echoes to the sky

See the Latin team advancing
Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear Old Latin evermore.

Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 1999

Competition is at the root of American heritage and there is no greater example than the long-standing football rivalry between Latin and English. This game more than any other is a source of great pride to both schools and to their loyal alumni. It is always a pleasure to watch these two teams engage in the best of schoolboy athletics.

I am particularly pleased to extend good wishes and good luck to the Boston Latin School football team, the coaches, the cheerleaders, the step squad and the football band. My best also to Head Master Sullivan and the students of English High School. The City of Boston and the Boston Public School system can be justifiably proud of the student athletes at both schools.

May this year be another fine example of sportsmanship and spirit – a showcase of the hard work, dedication and commitment on the part of all our student athletes and coaches.

Sumus primi!!
